

When and if you make a telephone privacy law that affects the entire US, please make it at least as strong as the one in Indiana. If possible, please include political calls on the no-call list and make severe penalties to the offenders.
Sincerely, Earl Scott